The Parents' Day celebration at Isaac Newton Global School was a joyous occasion filled with heartfelt performances and expressions of gratitude. The event aimed to honor and appreciate the parents for their unwavering support in the students' academic journey.

The event commenced with a warm and cordial welcome extended by the school's head boy and headgirl, followed by inviting all attendees to take their seats.

Aaradhya Bhadula, a student of grade 7, under guidance of Ms.Seema Shreta led a serene and thoughtful prayer, seeking blessings for the parents, teachers, and students.

The stage was set for the day's proceedings with a brief introduction of the significance of Parents' Day and its importance in acknowledging parental contributions. Some students, under the guidance of music teacher Sheyon Sir, presented a heartwarming song, expressing their love and gratitude towards their parents. The young and enthusiastic primary students set the stage ablaze with their captivating dance performance, skillfully choreographed by Baljeet Sir. The students, under the guidance of our speech and drama teacher Ms. Simantha, showcased their acting prowess through a thought-provoking skit that celebrated the unconditional love of parents.

Ovee, our talented young poet, recited a heartfelt poem that touched the hearts of everyone present, reflecting the bond between parents and children. RJ Vyan, a student with a passion for radio jockeying, entertained the audience with a lively radio link, skillfully trained by Ms. Renuka. Ms. Renuka Pillay, our Vice Principal, delivered an inspiring speech, highlighting the collaborative effort between parents and teachers in nurturing a child's development. The talented secondary students, once again under the guidance of Baljeet Sir, mesmerized the audience with an energetic and captivating dance performance.

Members of the Students Council shared heartwarming quotes and anecdotes, expressing their and appreciation for their parents. Our beloved Principal ma'am, Mrs. Sophia D'abreo, addressed the gathering, expressing profound gratitude to the parents and acknowledging their instrumental role in shaping the future of the students.

The Cultural Ministers of the school delivered a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all the participants, teachers, and parents for making the event a grand success.

The Parents' Day Celebration concluded on a high note, leaving a lasting impression on everyone's hearts. The event not only celebrated the parents but also strengthened the bond between the school and the families, fostering a sense of unity and support for the holistic development of the students.
