Carram Competition

The Carram Competition was held on 1st September in Isaac Newton Global School for the students of class 3 to 10. It brought together numerous participants from different age groups to showcase their skills in the popular tabletop game of carrom. It attracted participants of various skill levels, including amateurs, enthusiasts, and seasoned players.

The primary objectives of the carrom competition were as follows:

- a) To encourage participation in carrom and promote the game as a recreational activity.
- b) To identify and recognize talented carrom players.
- c) To foster a friendly and competitive environment among participants.
- d) To bring together carrom enthusiasts and promote social interaction.

The competition followed a structured tournament format, consisting of various rounds and elimination stages. It began with preliminary rounds, the winners of each group advanced to the knockout or elimination rounds. The competition was conducted classwise. First two winners from every grade were chosen.

Participants showcased their carrom skills, including accurate shooting, precise control of the striker, and strategic positioning of the carrom men. Players demonstrated a range of techniques, such as sinking multiple carrom men in one shot, using rebounds effectively, and playing defensively when necessary. The competition displayed the diversity in styles of play as players employed their own strategies to outwit opponents.

Throughout the competition, players displayed excellent sportsmanship and fair play. They respected the rules and regulations, exhibited humility in victories, and showed grace in defeat. The positive atmosphere and encouragement from fellow competitors further fostered a healthy and competitive environment.

The carrom competition proved to be a highly successful event. The event provided a platform for players to engage in friendly competition, display their talent, and foster a sense of sportsmanship.
