Time: 8 am to 8:45 am

Venue: INGS Assembly Hall

Conducted by: Mrs. Delilah Nunes

Isaac Newton Global School organized a special assembly to celebrate three significant occasions: Onam, Sports Day, and Raksha Bandhan. This assembly aimed to educate students about the cultural diversity and traditions of India while promoting unity, sportsmanship, and the bond between siblings. The event provided an opportunity for students and faculty to come together and celebrate these festivals with great enthusiasm and fervor.

Onam Celebration:

The assembly commenced by honoring the festival of Onam, celebrated predominantly in the state of Kerala. The stage was adorned with beautiful flower decorations to recreate the ambiance of a traditional Onam celebration. The students of grade 5A gave information on the significance of Onam, narrated the story of King Mahabali, recited a poem and conveyed wishes to all and emphasizing the values of equality and prosperity associated with the festival.

National Sports Day:

Following the Onam celebrations, the assembly shifted its focus towards Sports Day. This segment aimed to instill a sense of sportsmanship, teamwork, and healthy competition among students. The student council members conducted a skit which included a dialogue session that conveyed the message about sports day and also the importance and information were displayed.

Raksha Bandhan Celebration:

Lastly, the special assembly showcased the beautiful festival of Raksha Bandhan, a celebration of the bond between brothers and sisters. The significance and traditions associated with Raksha Bandhan were explained through a thought-provoking skit and a heartfelt speech. Sisters tied colorful rakhis on their brothers' wrists, symbolizing their love, protection, and lifelong bond.

The special assembly on Onam, Sports Day, and Raksha Bandhan brought together the entire school community to rejoice in the rich cultural heritage of India and promote essential values such as unity, sportsmanship, and sibling love. The event successfully facilitated an environment of joy, harmony, and cultural learning. Students left the assembly hall with a deeper understanding and appreciation for these festivals and values, having experienced the essence of unity in diversity.
