

Report on National Reading Day - Monologue Contest at Isaac Newton Global School

Date: June 19, 2024

Time: 8:10 am - 9:20 am.

National Reading Day, celebrated on June 19th, was marked by our school with an engaging Monologue Contest for the students of grade 5 to 7. The event aimed to foster a love for reading, enhance public speaking skills and encourage creative expression among the students.

A total of 25 students from grade 5 to 7 participated in the contest. Each student selected a monologue from a book, play, or original work, and performed it in front of the audience of peers and teachers.

Judging Criteria

The performances were judged based on the following criteria:

Clarity and Pronunciation: How clearly the student articulated their words.

Expression and Emotion: The ability to convey the emotions of the character.

Engagement: How well the student captivated the audience.

Memorization: The ability to perform without relying on the script.

Overall Performance: The coherence and impact of the performance as a whole.

The winners were selected based on the scores given by the judge. The winners were announced at the end of the day.

The National Reading Day Monologue Contest was a resounding success, providing our students with a platform to showcase their talents and passion for reading. The event not only celebrated the importance of literature but also highlighted the creativity and expressive abilities of our young students. The enthusiasm and skill displayed by the participants left a lasting impression on the audience and reinforced the value of reading and storytelling in our educational community.
